

Daily the Hindu News Paper Headlines 11-3-2022

1. SC directs Centre to produce internal files on TV channel

Page 5, Gs 2

- The Supreme Court on March 10 ordered the Centre to produce the “relevant files” based on which it refused to renew the licence of Kerala-based Media One TV channel on the grounds of “national security and public order”

Page 5, Gs 2

2. Russia -Ukraine war brews a crisis for Kochi tea auctions

Page 5

- Tea auctions by the Tea Trade Association of Cochin (TTAC) are struggling to find takers due to the subdued export demand to Russia and other Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) nations against the backdrop of the Russia-Ukraine war. A prolonged war may impact tea growers in the long run.

3. Russia Ukraine talks yield no progress

Page 12, World

- The Foreign Ministers of Russia and Ukraine met on Thursday in Turkey, the highest-level contact between the two countries since the Russian attack on Ukraine started on February 24, but in simultaneous duelling news conferences made clear they had made no progress. Ukraine’s Dmytro Kuleba said he had secured no promise from Russia’s Sergei Lavrov to halt firing so aid could reach civilians, including Kyiv’s main humanitarian priority — evacuating hundreds of thousands of people trapped in the besieged port of Mariupol.

4. Inflation may stay below 6% even if oil averages $100: Crisil

Business Page 13

- India’s retail inflation may average below 6% even if crude oil prices average $100 a barrel in 2022-23, but rising prices remain an elevated risk to growth especially as private consumption remains subdued, rating firm Crisil said on Thursday.

Business Page 13

5. What do we know about the newest crater on the moon? Page Text and Context

- A piece of a spacecraft flying through space reportedly hit the surface of the moon last Friday. The piece is around 65 feet wide.
- The piece of space junk, a third-stage booster of Chang’e 5-T1 , a lunar mission launched by China, weighs four tonnes and was moving at a speed of 9,300 km an hour.