

Daily The Hindu News Headlines -26-09-2022

Front Page

- Very premature to comment on India getting UNSC veto: Jaishankar (GS-2)
- Dasara back in full-on glory in the city of palaces (Prelims)

News

- Chandigarh plans to accelerate adoption of electric vehicles (GS-3)
- Telangana gears up to present strong case at Home Ministry's meeting
(Prelims – Creation of state constitutional provisions)
- Election Commission to push for internal democracy in parties (GS-2)
- 'Non-oil exports to UAE up 14% after trade deal; surge 3% globally' (GS-2)
- Rohatgi declines Centre's offer to be Attorney-General
(Prelims – AG)
- Fighter jet strength depleting, IAF expedites Su-30 fleet modernisation (GS-3)
- Labour cost edge may dissipate due to tech shifts: NITI adviser (GS-3)
- Govt. lacks clear stand on curative plea in Bhopal aid case
(Prelims – Curative petition)

Text & Context

- Shifting monsoon patterns (GS-1)
- When are the new ICC rules coming into play? (Prelims – Mankading)

Opinion

- India Inc. needs a neurodiverse workplace (GS-1)
- Mid-day meal-related food poisoning cases at six-year peak (GS-2)

Editorial

- Soft power, the new race every country wants to win (GS-2)
- A ground plan for India's reformed multilateralism (GS-2)
- Over the top (GS-2)